Reports

A. Council President

- Council President Smart asked Laura Engstrom, City Clerk to explain to the City Council and the public how write in votes for City Council and RSU 34 School Board seats were handled on the local Ballot. Laura explained that the residents would have to campaign themselves for write in votes. The voter would write their name and residency in the appropriate place on the Ballot. Nicknames can be used as well as just writing Old Town as their address. But if there are multiple residents with a common name then the whole address needs to be included to verify exactly who the resident is voting for. The polarity of votes will determine who gets chosen to sit on the seats.

B. Standing Committees -Administrative Services, Economic Development, Finance Services and Public Services.

D. City Attorney
