

Electrical Permits

Electrical permits are required for installation of all wiring. The replacements of fixtures, receptacles, or switches do not require a permit.

Who may obtain a permit?

The electrical permit must be obtained by the master electrician performing the work. A homeowner may obtain a permit and do the electrical work if the work is in the home he/she resides in and that home is a single family dwelling.